

7 COME 11

Hammond Organ Trio

7 Come 11 is a Hammond organ-driven trio that lays down super-funky grooves reminiscent of MMW and Soulive while delving into inspired jams and throwing out raging homages to classic rock giants like Led Zeppelin and Black Sabbath.

Featuring the blazing guitar prowess of Danny Mayer, the ferocious drumming of Kris Di Noto, Gianni Staiano's mighty Hammond organ and his mercurial footwork on the bass pedals, this group brings astonishing energy to the stage and leaves audiences wondering how so much sound can be coming from just three musicians.

7 Come 11 is:

Gianni Staiano - Hammond Organ

Kris Di Noto - Drums

Danny Mayer - Guitar

"It was the slow crying of keyboardist Gianni Staiano's Hammond that drew me into the room and the meth-a-nized heartbeat flutter of drummer Kris Di Noto and sushi chef incisiveness of guitarist Mark Van Ness that had me waving off friends in order to focus on their opening set. A fine mix of roadhouse ready and '70s electric jazz wow, they played with engaged strength and broad dynamics, moving from whisper low to explosive outbursts in a smooth way."
